Continuing Education Drop-In

02:00 PM - 02:30 PM EST

APG's mandatory Continuing Education Reporting process for 2025 is underway! Do you have questions about APG's Continuing Education Requirement? Would you like to know what qualifies for inclusion on the CE Reporting form? Do you need help filling out the form?

Join members of APG's Continuing Education Committee for a 30-minute Drop-In session and get the answers and help that you need. The deadline for reporting 2025 hours is midnight Eastern time 31 January 2026.

Get your continuing education (CE) questions answered in this casual session with CE committee members!

Members do not need to submit hours in January, if:

- 1) You joined APG in 2025*
- 2) You are a retired member*
- 3) You are an honorary lifetime member.*

Forensic SIG - Estate and Probate Research: What to Expect

08:00 PM - 09:00 PM EST

*What kind of work does a probate and estate genealogist do?
How do you find clients, and once you have clients, what kind of interaction is expected?
How fast do you need to have cases completed?
What work product do attorneys expect?*

The answer to all of this varies for everyone, but join the Forensic SIG as Katharine O'Connell discusses the work she and her team do and what has worked well for her over 8 years. She will cover all parts of the probate and estate business, from first contact with a client to delivery of the final report and exhibit file for court.

SIG members should watch their email and/or check the Message Board for Zoom link. Room opens 30 minutes early (7:30 PM) for networking.

Staying Out of Trouble-The Rights and Responsibilities of Today's Genealogists register at <https://coloradoapg.org/>

12:00 PM - 02:00 PM EST

As genealogists and researchers, we must understand today's laws as much as yesterday's. Modern law impacts our rights as researchers-rights of access to vital records, to information, and to places where information can be found. And it impacts our responsibilities, as well, particularly the need to respect another's copyright.

04:00 PM - 05:00 PM EST

The Ethical Genealogist: Seeking Truth with Care, Context, and Compassion

Almost everyone wants to do what is right and ethical. However, the right and ethical are not always clear or simple. Professional genealogists sometimes face situations requiring their discernment of what is right and ethical as they interact with clients and colleagues.

This webinar will provide principles and guidance for acting within such situations. A portion of the webinar will address questions submitted in advance by participants concerning the ethical quandaries encountered in their genealogical work.
